The Season After the Epiphany is the season of Ordinary Time, which includes four to nine Sundays, depending on the date of Easter. It is ordinary in that it stands between the two great christological cycles of Advent-Christmas-Epiphany and Lent-Easter-Pentecost and has no central theme. Paraments, stoles, and banners may show a variety of color, texture, and symbols in Ordinary Time.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

At the Procession,*
Hymn 61
Come, Thou Almighty King
Italian Hymn

Invocation*

Affirmation of Faith*
The Apostles' Creed
I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Gloria Patri*
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
Charles Meineke
† The people are seated.

Sacrament of Christian Baptism (11:15 am)

Response: With God’s help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ, that this child (these children,) surrounded by steadfast love, may be established in the faith and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal.

Prayer of Dedication

All Things Bright and Beautiful

Royal Oak
(stanza one)

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all. Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings, God made their glowing colors, and made their tiny wings. Refrain

Prayer*
Anthem

With a voice of singing

With a voice of singing declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluia. Utter it even unto the ends of the earth. The Lord hath delivered his people, alleluia. O be joyful in God, all ye lands, O sing praises to the honour of his name, make his praise to be glorious.

The Parish Choir (8:45 am)

Ubi caritas

Where charity and love abide there God in truth is ever found. Together in that love are we to one another bound. There envy, strife and discord cease. And there reside sweet joy and peace. There words of gentleness abound. So may love fill our hearts and minds as air our lungs fill ev’ry breath. So may love be our sign and our defining shibboleth. And let us love like as we ought: Love is the lesson, love is taught. For only love is strong as death.

The Chancel Choir (11:15 am)

At the Presentation,*

Hymn 95
