In God We Trust

“...Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us as a nation. Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.' And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!”

The Star-Spangled Banner is the national anthem of the United States of America. The lyrics come from “Defense of Fort McHenry,” a poem written in 1814 by the 35-year-old amateur poet Francis Scott Key after witnessing the bombardment of Fort McHenry by Royal Navy ships in Chesapeake Bay during the Battle of Baltimore in the War of 1812.

The Greeting

We welcome each of you to this service! Please register your attendance on the Ritual of Christian Fellowship. Let us know if you are new, would like to become a member, or are interested in more information about Peachtree Road. We pray that this time together will be a blessing in your life.

† At the sound of the bells, please prepare your hearts and minds for worship.

Choral Introit

Chant: George S. Talbot (1875-1918)

Hallelujah! Praise God in his holy temple; praise him in the firmament of his power. Praise him for his mighty acts; praise him for his excellent greatness. Praise him with the blast of the ram’s horn; praise him with lyre and harp. Praise him with timbrel and dance; praise him with strings and pipe. Praise him with resounding cymbals; Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

_Festival piece on St. Anne*

Eugene Butler (b. 1953)

O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home. Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame from everlasting Thou art God to endless years the same. A thousand ages in Thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night, before the rising sun. Time like an ever rolling stream bears all its sons away, they fly forgotten as a dream dies at the opening day. O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, be Thou our guard while life shall last, and our eternal home! Amen!

Choral Response

\[ \text{Eternal Father, strong to save} \]

John Dykes
(1823-1876)

Eternal Father, strong to save, whose arm hath bound the restless wave, who bidst the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep: O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea. Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

At the Offertory,

† An offering is collected to support the work of Peachtree Road United Methodist Church sharing God's love with the world.

Hymn 696*

\[ \text{America the Beautiful} \]

Materna

† During the singing of the Offertory hymn, veterans are invited to gather in the narthex to join the veterans' procession.

Prayer*

Anthem

\[ \text{Battle hymn of the republic} \]

arr. Peter Wilhousky
(Twentieth Century)

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword: His truth is marching on. Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on. I have seen Him in the watchfires of a hundred circling camps; they have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps; I can read His righteous sentence in the dim and flaring lamps, His day is marching on! In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, with a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me: as He died to make men holy, let us live to make men free, while God is marching on!

Julia Ward Howe
(1819-1910)

The Festival Chorus
The Atlanta Brassworks

† Please join the choir at the conductor's cue:

Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Glory, glory, Hallelujah! His truth is marching on.
I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Hymn

The Star-Spangled Banner
Eighteenth Century

O say, can you see, by the dawn’s early light, what so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming, whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, o’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming? And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave o’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

At the Presentation

Doxology with Alleluias
Tune: Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him: all creatures here below. Alleluia, Alleluia! Praise Him above ye heavenly host. Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Lesson
