TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
THE SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION
THE FOURTH DAY of NOVEMBER, 2018
THE GATHERING

Carillon Prelude
Sally Westmoreland

Opening Voluntary  Prayer of Saint Gregory
Alan Hovhaness (1911-2000)
Mark Maliniak, trumpet
Nicole Marane, organ

The Greeting
We welcome each of you to this service! Please register your attendance on the Ritual of Christian Fellowship. Let us know if you are new, would like to become a member or are interested in more information about Peachtree Road. We pray that this time together will be a blessing in your life.

† At the sound of the bells, please prepare your hearts and minds for worship.

The Choral Introit  Let beauty be our memorial
J.A.C. Redford (b. 1953)

Let beauty be our memorial; let love be our last, best word. Let our dissonant counterpoint finally resolve in a graceful, consonant chord. Let goodness hallow the holy ground where under the Mercy we rest. Let beauty be our memorial and let all the earth be blest.

The Georgia Boy Choir

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

At the Procession,*
Hymn 711  For All the Saints
Sine Nomine

The Invitation*
Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Confession and Pardon*
Let us confess our sins before God.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all people: We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father. For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear the Good News: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Glory to God. Amen.

Prayer

Anthem Remembrance Dan Locklair (b. 1949)

Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn; for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth. Remember your servants, Lord. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful; for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when the world reviles you and persecutes you; and utters all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake; rejoice and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven.

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

† The people are seated.

Holy are you and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those we name before you this day. Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection, you gave birth to your church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.
On the night in which he gave himself up for us he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this is remembrance of me.” When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said, “Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood, that all who believe might be saved. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Agnus Dei
At the Administration,
Motet:

Keep watch, dear Lord
Craig Phillips
(b. 1961)

Keep watch, dear Lord. Keep watch with those who work, or watch those who weep this night and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous, all for your love’s sake.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever, Amen.

TRADITIONAL WORSHIP
8:45 & 11:15 am, Sanctuary
Our Sunday morning worship in the Sanctuary is rich, warm and meaningful. Built upon traditional Christian liturgy, our more formal services combine the sacred elements of scripture, prayer, and hymns led by clergy and choir. Holy Communion is held once a month to remind us of our unity as Christians.

HOLY COMMUNION
9:00 am, Moore Chapel
Chapel communion is a service celebrating the gift of the Eucharist. Each week, in this intimate service, worshipers have the chance to hear the different voices of the PRUMC clergy. Music is led by staff and other guest musicians accompanied by the organ.

THE ROAD
11:15 am, Heritage Hall
The Road is an inviting worship experience that blends familiar church elements with an engaging atmosphere. Here you will find approachable fellow worshipers who enjoy a fresh message, current music and a shared experience. At The Road you can come as you are, when you are able. No matter where you are in your life or your faith, our doors are open to you.

SUNDAYS @ 5
5:00 pm, Moore Chapel
Life can get too busy, but don't let that define you. Reconnect with your faith, your church and yourself at a comfortable, informal service on Sunday afternoons. This is a great time to re-center before heading into a new week.
