The Introit                          Ralph Vaughan Williams

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

At the Procession,*                 Hymn 173                     Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies
Ratisbon

The Invitation*     Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

Confession and Pardon*          Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

Let us confess our sins before God.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all people: We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father. For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear the Good News: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Glory to God. Amen.

Prayer

Anthem  Gloria in Excelsis (Coronation)  Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory. O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only begotten Son Jesus Christ. O Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, that taketh away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that taketh away the sins of the world have mercy upon us, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For Thou only art holy. Thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Melanie Burbules, soprano
The Chancel Choir

At the Presentation*

Hymn 95  Tune: Old Hundredth

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Him, all creatures here below; praise Him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Moses you revealed yourself to us and gave us the Law. Through Elijah you told of your desire for us and pointed the way toward salvation. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sanctus*

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heavn and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

† The people are seated.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. You revealed his holy nature when he was transfigured before Peter and James and John. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.
Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Agnus Dei

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is e’en at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in all prayer and supplication let your petitions be manifest unto God with giving of thanks. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesu.

The Chamber Singers
The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever, Amen.
