INTRODUCING OUR NEW ORGAN SERIES

This series celebrates the incredible organs of Peachtree Road and we begin with a tour of the Great Organ with an initial broadcast on October 25 at 7 pm. Organ curator, Robert Coulter and narrator, John Lemley will take you behind the scenes to show how wondrous and unique the Great Organ of Peachtree Road has been since its debut in 2002.

THE WONDROUS MACHINE: ORGAN CONCERTS

Sunday, November 8 and 22, 7:00 pm

These unique virtual concerts will give you the opportunity to hear all six of PRUMC's organs in a single concert. You will hear organ solos as well as music for four hands and feet at one organ and also duets featuring two different organs at the same time! Organists Scott Atchison, Oliver Brett, LaKwan Bain and Oak Martin will bring out the best in these magnificent instruments.

SILENT MOVIE NIGHT: DAVID BRIGGS AT THE GREAT ORGAN

Sunday, November 15, 7:00 pm

This concert will include a screening of Charlie Chaplin's "The Immigrant" accompanied by the organ. One of the world's foremost improvisers will be accompanying the movie live! Get yourself some popcorn and watch a classic movie and one of the world's greatest silent movie improvisers from the comfort of your own living room.
