*King ever glorious, The Crucifixion

John Stainer
(1840-1901)

King ever glorious! The dews of death are gath'ring round Thee, upon the Cross Thy foes have bound Thee, Thy strength is gone! Not in Thy Majesty, robed in Heaven's supremest splendor; but in weakness and surrender, Thou hangest here. Who can be like Thee? Pilate high in Zion dwelling? Rome with arms the world compelling? Proud though they be! Thou art sublime. Far more awful in Thy weakness, more than kingly in Thy meekness, Thou Son of God. Glory and honor: let the world divide and take them; crown its monarchs and unmake them; but Thou wilt reign. Here and abasèd; crownless, poor, disrobed, and bleeding; there in glory interceding; thou art the King!

W. J. Sparrow Simpson, 1859-1952

Were you there?

African American Spiritual

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? Were when they nailed him to the tree? Were you there when they laid him in the tomb? Were you there when God raised him from the tomb? Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
